Sancerre

Domaine Régis Jouan

Vineyards size

4 hectares

Farming

The vineyard, average 25 years old, is planted on a slope exposed South West with a soil made of clay and limestone. This exposure and this implementation reveal the mystery of Sancerre: a wine that is at the same time fruity and powerful.

History

Régis is the 5 generations but his daughter and his son in law, Monsieur Girard is working with him already.

The domaine Jouan is located in Sury en Vaux, one the village of the Sancerre appellation.

Perfectly located North East of the Cher department, on the left side of the Loire, the domaine Jouan has the perfect Terroir to bring character to its wines.
